THE RAMNSES AT THE MUSEUM.

The last day of the exhibition of the famous statues at the Museum was yesterday.

THE PAPAL QUESTION.

The Pope's annual instructions to the Catholic world were read in the Curia yesterday. They contained a number of important instructions, but the most important, in our eyes, was that which referred to the war in Italy. The Pope declared that the war was a national question, and that the Church would not interfere in it.

THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR.

The English civil war is now in its third year, and the situation is becoming more and more critical. The Royalists are gaining ground, and it is feared that the war may be carried on for a long time to come.

Rural Conditions in Europe.

The rural conditions in Europe are becoming worse every day. The farmers are becoming poorer, and the prices of food are rising. The government is doing all it can to alleviate the situation, but it is not yet in a position to do much.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

The diplomatic correspondence is still going on, but it is not likely to be settled for some time to come. The main point of dispute is the frontier between France and Germany.

THE SITUATION IN CHINA.

The situation in China is becoming more and more critical. The Chinese are becoming more and more restless, and there is a danger that the country may break out into a general insurrection.

THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION.

The Russian revolution is still going on, and the situation is becoming more and more critical. The government is doing all it can to put down the insurrection, but it is not yet in a position to do much.

THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR.

The American civil war is now in its second year, and the situation is becoming more and more critical. The government is doing all it can to bring the war to a speedy end, but it is not yet in a position to do much.